GREATEST THRONG OF SEASON WITNESSES

Running of Christmas Handicap on the Coast Made stretch and he drew away. Opening a gap of eight lengths he fairly romped home in advance of Chester Krum and Arasee. Bubbling Water appeared unable to concede the weight.

Winning Widow won the Motto Handicap easily from Pawhuska. Pluvions, the favorite, was not ready and quit after running forwardly in the early stages. Raleigh P. D. led his field home in the Geraldine Handicap.

Jockey Fischer was suspended for the remainder of the week for cutting across with No Quarter in the last race Saturday.

Starter J. J. Holtman sent the fields away today. Refore leaving for his home in Texas, C. H. Shilling sold his riding equipment to jockeys G. Garner and Taylor, following out a custom which he adopts every year. He already has an order for a new outfit in the east which will cost him $500. This is quite a sum to pay for a saddle and the few blankets and oliskins which go to make up a jockey's equipment, but Shilling demands the very best, even-if it does come high.

Jockey J. McIntyre, who was suspended more than a year ago at Latonia by Judge Charles F. Price, has been notified that he has been restored to good standing. He is at Oakland and will get down to weight as soon as possible in order to resume riding. Turret probably will not face the barrier at the present meeting. Trainer O. A. Blanchi had the winner of the California Derby of last season fired soon after he returned from the east, and the colt has not been going along well in his work.

J. M. Crane has purchased three yearlings from Clarence Waterhouse, as follows: Sweetdale, by Maxnic-Sweet Faverdale: Sancl, by Altamax—Prejudice, and First Fashion, by First Tenor—Bit of Fashion.

Fashion.

Hamper is walking soundly after being fired and will soon be put in active training. This shifty sprinter was ailing all summer with a troublesome front knee and Early Wright expects him to round to form ere long.

Rollicking Boy has been added to the schooling list.

Lord Rossington has been fired.

was a brilliant one, he carrying 115 pounds as against 104 carried by Meadow-when the previous record was made.

W. G. Yanke dropped from the ranks of the layers today and will try it from the ground for awhile. Four favorites were returned as winners, the layers receiving a severe drubbing.

Jockey McGee won his first race of the meeting when he scored on Lena Lech in the second race. High Culture, from the stable of J. F. Newman, making his first appearance of the season, was heavily backed and won like a good one.

This afternoon Wade McLemore's Meadow reduced the Juarez track record for seven furlongs held by Knight Deck by three-fifths of a second with an impost of 123 pounds. Meadow won with consummate case. A fair-sized crowd was in attendance to witness the sport, the feature of which was the handicap won by Meadow. The public broke even with the layers as three well-backed favorites won.

Acumen, belonging to William Walker, was bid up to $600 by P. Higel and sold after winning the second race. Mr. Walker joined the ranks of the halter brigade by bidding up 80b Lynch, winner of the last race, to $1.300, but the horse was retained by his owner.

D. Hogan, prominent horseman of Montana, who owns Sixteen and several other horses, arrived today and will remain throughout the meeting.

PENSACOLA HAS BIG HOLIDAY CROWD.

Pensacola, Fla., December 26.—Today's racing was witnessed by an attendance that outnumbered any three former gatherings here and taxed the capacity of the plant to the overflowing point. Some of the races furnished rousing struggles, but others were devoid of such contention. The various pool-rooms throughout the country are said to have been hard bit by the wise clique here over the victories of Lord Wells and Sandiver.

Secretary Smith will leave for Tampa Wednesday night and Judge Burke the following day.

W. C. Crippen contemplates shipping Autumn Rose and other horses to Juarez.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

E. C., Kansas City, Mo. Do not know Canton's resent location.

W. O. D., Newport, Ky. A better should make his wagers correctly, but a bookmaker should not take advantage of an evident mistake.

Henry B., Chicago. A layer should know what he is taking and has himself to blame chiefly if he is imposed on. Apparently the action taken was cor-rect.

Three of the winners were first home by the shortest of margins, while two others won by a half length. Jockey Bell piloted two winners and two favorites won, the successful choices being Bob R. and Mindinette.

W. G. King-Dodds arrived from Pensacola this morning with his horses.

Jockey T. Koerner is expected to arrive from Louisville tomorrow.

John Reardon was excused from starting in the mile and a sixteenth handicap. The colt sprained a foot in his last race and will be laid up for a few weeks.

R. J. Aiken, of Philadelphia, owner of Sebastian, arrived this morning.

James O'Brien, a stable hand employed by Clarence H. Davis, was shot and killed last night at Moncrief Park by H. M. Donnlison, a watchman employed by the association. O'Brien and Donnlison became involved in an argument while eating in one of the track kitchens run by J. Mundy and at the conclusion of the meal the pair began fighting and Donnlison shot O'Brien just below the heart. The latter died shortly after being conveyed to the De Sot Hospital. Donnlison was arrested by Sheriff Bowden and lodged in the county jail. O'Brien came from Baltimore and during the recent Pimlico meeting was employed on one of the paddock gates.

At the conclusion of today's races the following ruling was issued: "For the best interests of racing, trainer Grover C. Baker has been denied all privileges, including admission to the grounds of the association. In addition, the further entries of the horses High Range, First Peep and Lily Paxfon will not be accepted or those of any other horses that are or may be under the care or superintendency of sald Baker. This rulling is made without prejudice to their existing stake engagements at Moncrief Park." It is alleged that Baker approached a jockey with a proposition to place a horse, hence the ruling.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Joe Notter is to do the heavyweight riding for the stable of James R. Keene next season. Jockey Bell, who is showing excellent form in the saddle at Moncrief Park, was connected with the stable of H. G. Bedwell as an exercise boy before Hugh Penny took charge of him.

Hugh Penny took charge of him.

All of the fair-minded continue to "boost" Moncrief Park and the excellent racing that is being given this winter. The sport is being conducted on a high plane. May they run at Moncrief for many more seasons.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

John Quincy Adams, boniface and horseman, died at Lexington, Ky., Saturday night as the result of blood poisoning, he having stepped on a rusty nail several weeks ago. Mr. Adams owned a farm at Tyrone and until a few years ago maintained a stable of running horses.

Monte Preston has some idea of abandoning the turf for a ranch in Texas, where he owns some 3,800 acres in partnership with his brother. He has purchased 100 broodmares, two jacks and a stallion and will breed mules for the southern market. The Preston ranch is about eighty miles from Juarez.

J. C. Fletcher, who is spending the holidays at his home in Toronto, has been advised that his horses have won four races at the Tokio meeting since he left Japan last month. Blue Bonnets won three, including the Champious Race, and Woodbine one. He hopes to win the Emperor's Cup next year with Blue Bonnets, which qualified by her win at Tokio. Only one owner, a wealthy Japanese cotton manufacturer, has ever been twice winner of the

In the event that a state racing commission is created by the California legislature, the southern section of the state will ask for representation on the hoard and will urge the appointment of Frank G. Hogan, a millionaire business man and sportsman of Pasadena and one of the partners in the Henderson & Hogan racing firm. Mr. Hogan enjoys a large measure of popularity in the south because he is a representative type of the business man-sportsman. His popularity is attested by the fact that he is president of the Tournament of Roses Association, which gives the New Year's Day festival of roses at Pasadena, and he is being urged as a candidate for mayor of the city. He comes from Kentucky, but for several years he has been a resident of Pasadena and has been prominently identified with its business interests. He is the president of the Hogan Company, one of the biggest realty concerns in the south.—San Francisco Post.

MISSOURI'S PARI-MUTUEL MOVEMENT.

according the plan to bring about the restoration acing in Missouri with pari-mutuel betting. by Schreiber is quoted as follows by the St.

Barney Schreiber is quoted as 1010ws by Louis Times:

"My idea is to have a bill introduced in the next legislature that will legalize racing in the state. I would like to see a bill that would put racing here on the same footing it is on in Kentucky. There they have a commission appointed by the governor, which oversees everything that goes on on the race tracks. Racing is under the direct control of this body, and never since it took charge has there been a blot on the escutcheon of the sport of the Blue Traces State.

a blot on the escutcheon of the sport of the Blue Grass State.

"The pari-mutuel system is in use there exclusively. No bookmakers are permitted on the tracks. This, I think, removes the greatest objection most persons hold against racing. 'Do away with the bookmakers,' they say, 'and you will obliterate the greatest evil of the race track.' While I could hardly concur in that opinion, I am willing to bow to the inevitable and accept whatever may be acceptable to the public.

"The matter of reviving racing has been talked over informally in other parts of the state, and a bill would be generally supported if it were introduced. Kansas City, St. Joseph, Jophin and other cities have become interested, legislators have been approached and sounded on the subject and many have expressed a willingness to support such a bill. "If some one can be found to father it a measure will almost certainly be placed before the assembly.

will almost certainly be placed before the assembly. I have the moral support of a number of influential St. Louisans, and have been promised ald when the time comes for action. There will be no rush about the affair, it being necessary to go slowly to avoid killing the movement in its infancy."

The Times endorses Mr. Schreiber's idea in the following brief but emphatic declaration:

"Mr. Schreiber's plan sounds good. It is at least worth a trial. Let's have legalized racing here."

J. Glass has regained his place among the thirty leading jockeys of the country and M. McGee has been crowded out. Otherwise the list remains un-changed since publication a week ago. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1 to and in-cluding the racing of Saturday last follows:

Troxler353 64 63 42 184 .18 PATRONIZES RACING AS PUBLIC DUTY.

Herbert Gladstone, a private individual in England, took no interest in racing and, perhaps, never attended a race course. As Lord Gladstone, governor-general of the United States of South Africa, he things that engage the attention and receive the support of a large portion of the people of the common-wealth of which he is the head. Pursuing this view he attended in state the opening of the spring meeting of the South African Turf Club at Capetown in November.

HORSEMEN NOT SORRY TO LEAVE.

Pensacola, Fla.. December 26.—Only two more days of the scheduled period remain for horsemen here and there will be little grief when moving day comes on the part of the horsemen who have engaged in the racing here. How the management ever conceived the idea that Pensacola would support a thirty-days meeting passes understanding. One turf follower sized up the situation when he remarked: "A race meeting here is twenty years ahead of the city's growth." Pensacola is growing, but for the present cannot successfully handle any racing except of a matinee character.

The losses sustained here by the management have been slight as race track losses go, but the aggravating feature lies in the fact that there is no likelihood of getting any part of it back. Previous plans for a thirty-days spring meeting have been discarded.

The next few days will find the horsemen busy plans for a thirty-days spring meeting have been discarded.

The next few days will find the horsemen busy arranging for the transfer of their horses to Tampa, Fla.. where the sixty-days meeting will begin January 2. In all about 400 horses will be shipped to the west coast track. The special train leaving here next Thursday will take away most of the consignment and the balance will follow by steamer leaving here next Saturday.

According to present prospects, there will be a scarcity of two-year-olds during the early days at Tampa, but this will probably be remedied by arrivals later. The program book for the initial seven days is in the hands of the printer and will be ready for distribution on Wednesday.

THOMAS F. RYAN'S IMPORTATION.

New York, December 26.—Dr. Walter Russell, of Dublin, manager of Richard Croker's stud farm at Glencairn, arrived here by the Atlantic transport liner Minnetonka in charge of thirteen high-class broodmares and one thoroughbred stallion, Sea King, for Thomas F. Ryan's stud farm at Oak Ridge, Va. Dr. Russell, who purchased all the horses under his charge, traveled through the whole of Ireland for some months before completing the commission intrusted him by Mr. Ryan, as none but well-bred matrons of size and quality with prize records would be purchased. Besides which Mr. Ryan was anxious to obtain as many as possible gray in color, Dr. Russell thinks that there is no doubt that the intusion of the best Irish steeplechase blood is sure to improve the breed of the genuine hunter here, as several of the mares are bred on perfect lines.

ERNEST LA MONTAGNE DIES.

New York, December 26.—Ernest La Montague, who for many years was closely identified with the turf, died at his Long Island home a few days ago. Mr. La Montagne from early boyhood took a lively inicerest in sports, and when still at college was an amateur sprinter of ability. His first entry on the turf was as the partner of Russell Tucker in the Chelsea Stable, a thoroughbred establishment that sent many a good horse to the races. Later he was associated with his cousin, Harry La Montagne, under the same stable name, though during the last season Harry La Montagne raced horses under his own name. Mr. La Montagne was a valued member of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and has at all times taken a lively interest in all matters pertaining to racing. He had been alling for more than a year and his death was in no sense a surprise to his friends.

Winner—Ca. c, by Cesarion—Lizzie Keller (trained by J. R. Thompson).

Went to post at 3:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same.

Work to the inside for the entire trip, took an easy lead on the stretch turn after GROVER

HUGHES bolted to the outside fence, but was tiring and doing his best at the end. PATRICK S. finished fast and wearing the leader down. REDWINE closed a big gap and responded gamely to punishment in the final drive. BERTIS and IDLEWEISS made up ground and were going fastest of all at the finish. GROVER HUGHES ran into the lead on the turn, but suddenly bolted across the track and lost all chance.
